- (12) to consider and approve proposals submitted by shareholders representing more than five percent (including 3%) of voting shares of the Company;
- (13) other matters which are required by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles to be resolved by the shareholders' general meeting.

(Article 50 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 61 The Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than a director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members of the Company whereby the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of any business of the Company is to be handed over to such a person without the prior approval of shareholders in a shareholders' general meeting.

(Article 51 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 62 Shareholders' general meetings can be annual general meetings or extraordinary general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board. The annual general meetings shall be convened once a year, and shall take place within six months of the end of the preceding financial year.

The Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months after the occurrence of any one of the following circumstances:

- (1) where the number of Directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or is no more than two thirds of the number required by the Articles;
- (2) where the accrued losses of the Company amount to one-third of its total share capital;
- (3) where shareholders holding ten percent or more of the Company's issued shares carrying the right to vote make a request in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) where the Board considers it necessary or the Supervisory Committee proposes to call for such a meeting;
- (5) where two or more independent non-executive Directors make a call for an extraordinary general meeting.

(Article 52 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 63 Where the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, written notice to notify all shareholders whose names appear in the register of shareholders must be given not less than forty-five (45) days before the meeting of the matters to be considered and the date and venue of the meeting. Any shareholder intending to attend the shareholders' general meeting should send the Company a reply in writing stating his intention to attend the meeting twenty (20) days before the date of the meeting.

(Article 53 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 64 In an annual general meeting of the Company, shareholders holding more than five percent (including 5%) of the total voting shares of the Company are entitled to propose new resolutions in written form. The Company shall include those matters which are within the scope of duties of the shareholders' general meeting into the agenda of such meeting.

(Article 54 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 65 Based on the writing replies received twenty (20) days before a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall calculate the number of shares represented by the shareholders who have intention to attend the shareholders' general meeting. Where the number of voting shares represented by those shareholders reaches more than half of the Company's total number of such shares, the Company may convene the shareholders' general meeting. Otherwise, the Company shall, within five (5) days, inform the shareholders again of the motions to be considered, the date and venue of the meeting by way of public announcement. After making the announcement, the shareholders' general meeting may be convened.

An extraordinary general meeting shall not decide on matters which are not specified in the notice.

(Article 55 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 66 Notice of shareholders' general meeting shall:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) state the venue, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) state the motions to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide such information and description as are necessary for the shareholders to exercise an informed judgment on the proposals before them. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, to repurchase the shares of the Company, to reorganize its share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the cause and effect of such a proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of material interests of any director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management members in the transaction proposed and the effect of the proposed transaction on him in his capacity as shareholder in so far as it is different from the effect on the other shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution proposed for the meeting;
- (7) contain a specific statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not be a shareholders;
- (8) state the time within which and the address to which the relevant instruments appointing the proxies for the meeting are to be delivered.

(Article 56 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 67 Notice of a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be served on each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote thereat, by personal delivery or prepaid mail to the shareholder at his address, as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic invested shares, notices of the shareholders' general meetings may be given by public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers approved by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council on any day from forty-five (45) to fifty (50) days prior to the meeting. Once the announcement has been published, all holders of domestic invested shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant meeting.

(Article 57 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 68 The accidental omission to give notice of the meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting or any resolution passed at such meeting.

(Article 58 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 69 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one person or more (need not be a shareholder) as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him/her; such proxy could exercise the following rights as entrusted by such shareholder:

- (1) the right of speech of such shareholder at a shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) demand a poll either by him/herself or jointly with others;
- (3) exercise voting rights by show of hands or by way of poll, but such voting rights shall only be exercised by way of poll if more than one proxy have been appointed.

(Article 59 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 70 The appointment of a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing; or if the appointor is a corporation, either under corporate seal or under the hand of its director or its attorney duly authorised.

(Article 60 of Mandatory Provisions) [Appendix III of GEM Listing Rules - 11(2)]

Article 71 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the premises of the Company or such other place specified in the notice of meeting convening such meeting not less than 24 hours before the time for holding such meeting or 24 hours before the specified time demanding a poll. The power of attorney or other authority shall be notarized if such instrument is signed by others authorized by the appointor. The notarized power of attorney or other authority shall be deposited at the premises of the Company or such other place specified in the notice of meeting together with such instrument.

In the case of the appointor being a corporation, its legal representative or person(s) authorized by the Board or other decision-making bodies shall act as representative to attend shareholders' meetings of the Company.

(Article 61 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 72 Any format of the instrument appointing a proxy given to a shareholder by the Board shall allow such shareholder to freely instruct such proxy to vote in favour of or against a resolution, and to give instruction in respect of any item needed to be resolved for each resolution on the meeting. Such instrument shall indicate that if no instruction is given, the proxy should vote at his/her discretion.

(Article 62 of Mandatory Provisions) [Appendix III of GEM Listing Rules - 11(1)]

Article 73 In case of death, incapacitation, revoke of appointment and the authority under which the instrument is signed or a transfer of relevant shares of the appointor prior to voting, the votes cast by a proxy in accordance with such instrument shall not be invalidated as long as the Company has not received a written notice on such businesses prior to the relevant meeting.

(Article 63 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 74 An individual shareholder attending a shareholders' general meeting in person shall produce his/her identification proof and evidence of his/her shareholdings: a proxy representing his/her shareholder to attend a shareholders' general meeting shall produce his/her identification proof, evidence of his/her shareholdings and the instrument under he/she is appointed (other than a clearing house (or its agent) (hereinafter referred to as "Clearing House") as defined under the Securities and Future Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong)) as well as the identification proof of the agent. In case of a corporate shareholder appointing its legal representative to attend the meeting, the Company has the right to request such legal representative to produce the evidence of shareholdings as being the corporate shareholder, and a valid copy of the resolution by the Board or other governing bodies appointing such legal representative (excluding Clearing House), as well as a valid identification proof and a copy of the power of attorney of that corporate representative. If the corporate shareholder is a Clearing House, it could authorize one person or more whom they think fit to act as its representative at any shareholders' general meeting or any class meeting. However, if more than one person are authorized, the power of attorney shall set out the number and the class of shares in respect of each such persons so authorised. Any person so authorized could exercise the rights on behalf of the Clearing House, as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 75 The resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Passing of an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting shall be made with more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Passing of an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting shall be made with more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Shareholders (including proxies) present at a shareholders' general meeting shall expressly vote in favour of or against every business put to vote. An abstention of vote or abstaining from voting shall not be treated as votes with voting rights when the voting results of such business is being counted.

If any shareholder must abstain from voting or is restricted to vote only in favour of or against a special resolution according to the Articles of Association of the Company or the Listing Rules of the GEM of the Stock Exchanges, the vote cast in violation of the above requirements or restrictions by such shareholder or his/her proxy shall not be counted as a valid votes.

(Article 64 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 76 When a shareholders (including proxy) exercise his/her voting rights in respect of the number of shares, with voting rights, represented by him/her at a shareholders' general meeting, each share has one vote.

(Article 65 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 77 A resolution put to vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall be decided by show of hands unless a poll is demanded before or after the show of hands by:

- (1) by the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) by at least two shareholders entitled to vote or their proxies;
- (3) by a shareholder or shareholders (including proxies) alone or together representing more than 10% (inclusive 10%) of the shares having the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, and an entry to that effect made in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes in favour or against such resolution carried at the meeting.

The request for a poll could be withdrawn by the proposer.

(Article 66 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 78 If the business put to vote by poll concerns the election of the chairman or adjournment of the meeting, it shall be immediately voted. The other businesses put to vote by poll will be decided by the chairman as to when to vote. The meeting could proceed to discuss other businesses and the poll results will be regarded as made at the meeting.

(Article 67 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 79 On a poll, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all their votes in favour of or against a resolution.

(Article 68 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 80 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second vote.

(Article 69 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 81 The following matters shall be passed by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) work reports of the board of directors and Board of supervisors;
- (2) profit distribution plan and loss compensation plan prepared by the board of directors;
- (3) removal of the members of board of directors and Board of supervisors as well as the manner of compensation and payment;
- (4) annual budgets, final accounts, balance sheet, income statement and other financial statements of the Company;
- (5) other matters apart from those should be passed by special resolutions as required by the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association of the Company.

(Article 70 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 82 The following matters shall be passed by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) an increase or reduction of equity, issuance of any class of shares, warrants and other similar securities by the Company;
- (2) an issuance of debentures of the Company;
- (3) a segregation, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendments to the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (5) other matters which are believed to cause material impact to the Company passed by ordinary resolution and those required to be passed by special resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting.

(Article 71 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 83 Shareholders who request to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting shall follow the procedures set out below:

- (1) Two or more shareholders who in aggregate hold more than 10% (inclusive 10%) of the voting rights of the shares with voting right in such a proposed meeting may sign one or more written requisitions in the same form and contents, requesting the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting, and specifying the subject matter of the meeting. The board of directors shall convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting as soon as possible upon receiving the aforesaid written requisitions.

The aforesaid number of shares is based on the date of the written requisitions by the shareholders.

- (2) If the board of directors fails to give the notice convening the meeting within 30 days after receiving the written requisition, the shareholders requesting such requisitions may convene such a meeting by themselves within 4 months after the board of directors has received the requisitions. The procedures of convening the meeting shall follow as much as possible those procedures for a shareholders' general meeting convened by the board of directors.

The Company shall be liable to bear all the costs incurred reasonably in convening and holding a meeting by the shareholders as a result of the failure of the board of directors to convene such meeting upon the aforesaid requisitions, which shall be deducted from any payment owed to the directors who are in default of their duties.

(Article 72 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 84 A shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and presided over by the chairman of the board of directors. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting, the vice-chairman shall convene and preside over the meeting. If neither the chairman nor the vice-chairman is unable to attend the meeting, the board of directors may appoint another director of the Company to convene and preside over the meeting; shareholders attending the meeting may elect a chairman if it is left unspecified. If for any reason the shareholders fail to elect a chairman of the meeting, the shareholder present in person or by proxy in the meeting and holding the largest number of shares with the right to vote shall be the chairman of the meeting.

(Article 73 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 85 The chairman of the meeting is responsible for deciding if a resolution at the shareholders' general meeting is passed. His decision shall be final and it shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(Article 74 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 86 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of voting on any resolution, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting does not make a count of such votes, any shareholder present in person or by proxy at the meeting who objects the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request a count of the votes immediately following the declaration of the result and the chairman of the meeting shall forthwith proceed with such counting.

(Article 75 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 87 In the event a count of the votes has been made at a shareholders' general meeting, the result thereof shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(Article 76 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 88 Minutes shall be taken in respect of the decisions on matters resolved at the shareholders' general meeting, which shall be signed by directors attending the meeting. Minutes of the meeting together with the signature book of shareholders attending the meeting and the instrument appointing a proxy shall be kept at the legal domicile of the Company.

(Article 76 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 89 Shareholders shall be entitled to inspect the copies of the minutes of the shareholders' general meeting(s) free of charge during office hours of the Company. Upon the request from any shareholder for a copy of the relevant minutes of meeting, the Company shall send the copy of the minutes so requested within 7 days after the receipt of reasonable payment.

(Article 77 of Mandatory Provisions)

Chapter 9 Special Procedures for Voting by Class Shareholders

Article 90 Shareholders holding different classes of shares are classified as class shareholders.

Class shareholders are entitled to the rights and obligations in accordance to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Apart from the shareholders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special voting procedures of class shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

- (1) where, with the approval by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, the Company issues, either individually or concurrently, domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares at an interval of twelve months, and the number of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares proposed to be issued does not exceed 20% of their respective outstanding shares; [Appendix XI C of GEM Listing Rules - (f)(i)]
- (2) where the plan of the Company to issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares at the time of incorporation is implemented within fifteen months from the date of approval by the Securities Regulatory Commission of the State Council. [Appendix XI C of GEM Listing Rules - (f)(ii)]

(Article 78, 85 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 91 If the Company proposes to vary or abrogate the rights of the class shareholders, the same can only be implemented after it has been passed by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting and also by the class shareholders so affected at the shareholders' general meetings respectively convened in accordance with Articles 93 to 96.

(Article 79 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 92 The following conditions shall be considered as a variation or abrogation of the rights of a certain class of shareholders:

- (1) the increase or reduction of the number of shares of that class of shares, or the increase or reduction of the number of shares in another class which carry the same or more right to vote, right of distribution or other privileges;
- (2) the conversion of all or part of the shares of that class to another class, or the conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of that class or the granting of such right of conversion;
- (3) the cancellation or reduction of the rights of that class of shares to receive accrued dividends or accumulated dividends declared;
- (4) the reduction or cancellation of the preferential rights of that class of shares to receive dividends or to receive distribution of assets upon the liquidation of the Company;
- (5) the increase, cancellation or reduction of the share conversion rights, options rights, voting rights, rights of transfer, pre-emptive rights and rights to acquire the securities of the Company of that class of shares;
- (6) cancellation or reduction of the rights of that class of shares to receive payment payable by the Company in a particular currency;
- (7) creation of a new class of shares which enjoys the same or more voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges than those enjoyed by that class of shares;
- (8) restriction or increase of the restriction on the transfer or ownership of that class of shares;
- (9) the issuance of subscription rights or conversion rights in respect of that class or another class of shares;
- (10) the increase of the rights and privileges of another class of shares;
- (11) the reorganization of the Company causes that different classes of shareholders assume obligations not in proportion therein;
- (12) the amendment or abrogation of the provisions in this Chapter.

(Article 80 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 93

Whether or not the class shareholders so affected have voting rights at a shareholders' general meeting, they shall have the right to vote at the meeting of class shareholders in respect of the matters mentioned in (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) of Article 92 of the Articles of Association provided that the interested shareholders shall have no right to vote at the the meeting of the class shareholders.

An interested shareholder mentioned in the preceding paragraph is defined as:

- (1) in the case where the Company makes a repurchase offer to all shareholders in a proportionate manner in accordance with the provisions of Article 34 of the Articles of Association or repurchases its shares on a stock exchange by way of public dealing on a stock exchange, “interested shareholder(s)” shall mean the controlling shareholder as defined in Article 58;

- (2) in the case where the Company repurchases its shares by way of agreement other than through a stock exchange in accordance with the provisions of Article 34 of the Articles of Association, “interested shareholder(s)” shall mean the shareholder(s) related to such agreement;
- (3) in case of a proposal to restructure the Company, “interested shareholder(s)” shall mean a shareholder who undertakes obligations to a lesser extent than other shareholders of the same class, or a shareholder who enjoys benefits which are different from those enjoyed by other shareholders of the same class.

(Article 81 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 94 A resolution of the meeting of class shareholders shall be passed in accordance with Article 93 by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of the class shareholders attending and having the right to vote in the meeting.

(Article 82 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 95 If the Company convenes a meeting of class shareholders, a written notice shall be given 45 days prior to the meeting to all shareholders of such class who are on the register of shareholders, specifying the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting. The shareholders who intend to attend the meeting shall serve on the Company a written reply of their intention 20 days prior to the meeting.

If the number of shares which carry the right to vote at such meeting held by those shareholders who intend to attend such meeting is more than half of the total number of that class of shares, the Company may convene such meeting of class shareholders. Failing which, the Company shall further notify the shareholders by way of announcement within 5 days thereof specifying the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting. After giving such notice, the Company may convene the meeting of class shareholders.

(Article 83 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 96 Notice of the meeting of class shareholders need only be served to shareholders who are entitled to vote at such meeting.

The procedures of the meeting of class shareholders shall follow as much as possible the procedures of a shareholders' general meeting and the provisions in the Articles of Association relating to the procedures of a shareholders' general meeting shall apply to the meeting of class shareholders.

(Article 84 of Mandatory Provisions)

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 97 The Company shall have a board of directors as the permanent governing body of the Company.

Article 98 The board of directors comprises 9 directors, of which 3 are executive directors, 3 are independence non-executive directors and 3 are non-executive directors. The Board shall have a chairman and a vice-chairman.

(Article 86 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 99 directors shall be elected in a shareholders' general meeting with a term of 3 years. Upon expiration of the term, the directors shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

The notice on nomination of candidates for the election of directors shall be given to the Company with a minimum period of 7 days, during which the candidates could give a notice to the Company indicating their willingness to stand for the election. The submission period for such notice is from the following day of dispatching the notice of the shareholders' general meeting on election to 7 days prior to the convening of such shareholders' general meeting.

[Appendix III of GEM Listing Rules - 4(4), (5)]

The chairman and the vice-chairmen shall be elected and dismissed by more than a half of all the directors on the Board with a term of three years. Upon expiration of the term, the chairman and the vice-chairmen shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

The shareholders' general meeting could dismiss any director whose term has not expired by way of a ordinary resolution under the premise of complying with relevant laws and administrative regulations (but claims that may be submitted under any contract shall not be affected). [Appendix III of GEM Listing Rules - 4(3)] directors need not hold shares of the Company.

(Article 87 of Mandatory Provisions)

Article 100 The board of directors shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting and shall have the following responsibilities:
